Conference Theme

Midwives play a crucial role in maternal, new born and child health in the community and hospital settings. Through their practices, they help the country achieve MDG 4 & 5. They are the ones who with their updated knowledge and skills can make a difference to the lives of women in their reproductive age group. The Midwife therefore has been rightly recognized as a responsible and accountable professional, who works in partnership with women to give necessary support, care and advice during pregnancy, labour and postpartum period.

The ICM's theme for the year 2017, Midwives, Mothers, and families - Partner for life, stresses the importance of Midwifery services that have been acknowledged worldwide and hence in recognition of the same, they now partner not only with the laboring women, but also with the family to render continuous support from young, adolescent girls towards motherhood.

Having understood this wide role and responsibilities of the midwives, SCON has therefore organized this National Conference - "Strengthening Midwifery services towards Essential & Emergency Obstetric Care" on March 30 and 31, 2018 at Symbiosis Vishwabhavan, Pune.

Aim

The conference aims to strengthen Nurses in their knowledge, attitude and practice in order to equip them to encounter any kind of emergencies in the care of women to ensure safe motherhood.
